1. Officials of the Rumanian Government travelling on business to cities and towns along the Danube report unusually strict security regulations are presently in force. A special pass is required to enter the town of Calarasi. The railroad station is under military guard. Every visitor to Calarasi, including government functionaries, is accompanied by a Militiaman during his stay in the town.
2. Similar security measures are enforced in Turnu-Severin.
3. Members of the Militia and officials of the Rumanian State Security have been assigned to all factories in the Ploesti area. Guard is mounted both inside and outside of all plants.
